

Athens Post.

Athens, Friday, April 30, 1890.

AGENTS FOR THE POST.

The following named gentlemen will act as agents for the Post in remitting subscriptions from their respective localities:

JOHN L. McCRACKEN, Riceville, W. J. ARBE, Denton, B. F. MARTIN, Calhoun, H. A. CRAWFORD, Washington, Rhea Co., D. W. LATTIMER, Fort Mifflin Branch, R. B. SHIRLEY, Sulphur Springs, Rhea county, Tennessee.

Religious Notice. A Sacramental Meeting will be held in Cleage's Hall, Athens, commencing on Friday, May 7th, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Registrar. Wm. C. Owens, Esq., has been appointed Registrar for Meigs county, in place of the late Edwin A. Atlee.

Press Wanted. Any person having a good second-hand Press, extra Imperial size, platen 21 x 30, for sale, can find a purchaser by dropping a line to this office.

The Lecture. There was a good crowd at the Masque and Odd Fellows' Hall on Tuesday night to hear the lecture by Dr. W. W. ALEXANDER.

At the close of the Lecture, Grand Master M. R. ELLIOTT, of Gallatin, who happened to be present, was introduced and favored the audience with a brief but eloquent address upon Odd Fellowship.

The Second of the Course of Lectures will be delivered on Tuesday evening next, by W. M. KENT, M. D., when we hope to see the Hall again well filled.

McKeldin & Dement, beginning to appreciate some of the essential properties of printer's ink, are out with a new advertisement today, to which attention is specially invited.

Why is a teacher in a newspaper office like a shade tree? Because we are glad when he leaves. Several Broad-brims have been appointed to Indian agencies. They propose to make a good thing of it.

A Young Lady on Bonnets. One of our fair readers sends us the following, with a request to publish. Whether it is original or borrowed, we don't pretend to know.

Oh! the bonnets of my childhood—the kind I wore to school! I really thought them pretty—I must have been a fool. And yet I used to think myself on hats a janty miss; perhaps I was, as fashion went; but what was that to this? Oh, the lovely little pink ones—the charming little hat! It makes my head so level, and so very, very flat. Oh, a sister's love is charming, as everybody knows; and a handsome cousin's love is nice (that is, I should suppose); and the love of a true-lover is a love that cannot fall—but the love of a new bonnet is the dearest love of all.

Lots of the latest and most handsome styles at Horton & Co's. Call and see.

Bustum Comet, Magnam Tail. A comet, superior in size and lustre to Encke's, is nightly expected. Celestial curiosity-seekers are promising the novelty between this date and June.

Once a Month. As we have before said, this is one of the best periodicals of the day—solid and substantial. The subscription price is $2.00 per annum, but the publishers offer to send the first six months numbers for 1890 (from January to June), for 50 cents, in order to let the people see the Magazine and become acquainted with the rare excellence of its reading matter.

Letter-Writers and Advertisers. A Chicago editorials waives its readers of a fact not generally known, viz: that according to a recent change in the regulations of the Post-office Department, no letters addressed to initials will be delivered at any residence or in any post-office box.

The Silver Mines of Monroe. We have received several communications in regard to the reported discovery of rich silver mines in Monroe county. It is proper to state that we have been put in possession of some valuable information on the subject, but were requested to withhold it by parties interested until further developments could be made.

Arthur for May. Arthur's Home Magazine for May reached us a few days ago, with its pages filled with good and interesting matter. Any of our lady friends who want a really excellent magazine should send for Arthur's. Price, $2.00 a year, T. S. Arthur & Sons, Philadelphia.

Ex-President Johnson passed up the railroad last Saturday morning, en route for his home, whither he had been called by the sudden death of his son, Col. Robt. Johnson, which occurred on Thursday night.

The weather has been warm and cloudy for several days past, with frequent and copious showers of rain. Farmers are a little behind in getting their corn planted, but a few days of fair weather will set them all right.

A white man named Tober, of Philadelphia, was, on the 14th, appointed steward of the White House, to the great disgust of six negro applicants.

W. L. Barry, a compositor in the office of the Lebanon Herald and Register, and the oldest printer in the United States, celebrated the 80th anniversary of his birthday last week.

Eighty-four black men are studying in a college in Allegheny City, Pennsylvania. They all expect to be President of the United States, or at least members of Congress.

One of the best sort of minds is that which minds its own business. Like many other extra good things, including beefsteaks, it is somewhat rare.

A Boston lecturer is of the opinion that infidelity, jealousy and intolerance are the chief causes of conjugal infelicity. It did not require very strong or very deep scrutiny to reach that fact.

Chips, and Things.

Attend the next Lecture Tuesday night. The United States senate adjourned sine die on the morning of the 26th.

Incidents: New York, twenty-one States have ratified the 15th amendment. There will be a two-and-one-half hours' eclipse of the Sun in August.

Gen. T. L. Hammond of Virginia, died last week. Ex-President Johnson spoke for three hours at Huntsville, Alabama, on the 21st.

Capt. Henry A. Wise died at Naples on the 18th inst. Chas. Golden Smith has received his commission as Chancellor of the Seventh Division.

It is now pretty well settled that San Domingo is to be annexed to the United States. The anniversary of Thomas Jefferson's birthday occurred on the 13th inst.

Senator Sprague of Rhode Island is as mad as a March hare. Col. Mix, for thirty years chief clerk of the Indian Bureau, has been displaced.

The superintendent of New Orleans seized nineteen thousand barrels of whisky last week. Col. Robt. Johnson, son of the ex-President, died at Greenville on the night of the 22d.

The last of Grant's relations has been found and appointed to office. The gunboat Seminole has been sent to the vicinity of Cuba.

The Senate refused to confirm Sanford for the mission to Spain. Mrs. Mary Stever was married to Mr. Wm. Brown, at Greenville, on the 29th.

Wm. M. Alexander is to be assistant revenue collector for Roane county. The Bible makes mention of the 22nd letter, in the book of Job, chap. 37, v. 22.

A spring of wonderful medicinal properties has been discovered near Dalton, Georgia. Carl Shurz's man, Pilo, is mad because the Senate rejected him for the mission to Madrid.

The foedels are subsiding North and West, and railroad travel is generally resumed. The devil wove most of his success to the fact that he is always on hand and agreeable.

Life is a mountain—after climbing one side and sliding down the other, put up the sled. The most dangerous characters in the world are those who fly in the suburbs of virtue.

President Grant hints that there are many more people anxious to go into office than there were to go into the army. Why is a teacher in a newspaper office like a shade tree? Because we are glad when he leaves.

Several Broad-brims have been appointed to Indian agencies. They propose to make a good thing of it. James H. Grant, resident engineer of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, died last week.

A heavy joke—Simon Cameron rising to his pins in the United States Senate and denouncing thieves. In all the relations of life President Grant is a kind hearted man—especially to his own and his wife's relations.

A half million of the registered bonds recently stolen at Philadelphia have been recovered. A French company propose to establish a factory at New Orleans for the manufacture of spool thread.

John W. Forney & Co. are on a visit to Georgia. "Hands on your pocket-books, there's rogues about!" The United States Treasury is again selling gold, notwithstanding Boutwell's notification that he would not.

By an accident on the Long Island Railroad on the 23d, six persons were killed and fifteen others seriously injured. The building being erected in Boston for the June monster Concert, will cover three and one-half acres of land, inside the walls.

Secretary Berie, having satisfied the country that his appointment was a mistake, will retire from the Navy Department. The government at Washington has sent a rotten old wooden vessel down to Cuba to look after Spanish iron-clads.

Covington, Indiana, has a candidate for office who erases names from tombstones to annex to his petition. The Albany Argus calls the Secretary of the Navy a "grey-headed old salt." That's rather high seas-on-d.

According to the latest fashion reports young ladies are to wear bouffant on their elbows next season. The beaux will be delighted. A young man wants a situation where the only heavy thing is the salary. He is willing to dispense with any amount of work if this can be guaranteed.

A blade out in the western wilds writes home, "The report of my marriage is groundless, and I shall continue to live on the European plan." A Cleveland newspaper recently advertised that it would send a copy free to any person sending a "club of ten." A young lady in the country sent it the ten spot of clubs.

Among the court files at Taunton is the finding of a coroner's jury, which concludes that "the said" came to his death by the visitation of the aforesaid God. A correspondent says there are no daily papers published in his town, but there is a ladies' sewing meeting, which answers the very same purpose.

A white man named Tober, of Philadelphia, was, on the 14th, appointed steward of the White House, to the great disgust of six negro applicants. W. L. Barry, a compositor in the office of the Lebanon Herald and Register, and the oldest printer in the United States, celebrated the 80th anniversary of his birthday last week.

Eighty-four black men are studying in a college in Allegheny City, Pennsylvania. They all expect to be President of the United States, or at least members of Congress. One of the best sort of minds is that which minds its own business. Like many other extra good things, including beefsteaks, it is somewhat rare.

A Boston lecturer is of the opinion that infidelity, jealousy and intolerance are the chief causes of conjugal infelicity. It did not require very strong or very deep scrutiny to reach that fact.

Polk County U. S. A.

We copy the following from the columns of the Republican of last week: Resolved, by the Polk County U. S. A., No. 1, at Black Oak Grove in Council assembled, that we do solemnly enter our protest against the course of our Legislature:

1st. In voting themselves a higher salary. 2d. In voting money to railroads which do not pay their interest. 3d. In neglecting to secure the school money and pay it to the object for which it is intended. 4th. In contracting their sessions to an unreasonable length, thus swallowing up the people's money.

5th. That we want men to go to the next Legislature, who will vote for the repeal of the act to increase the pay of members, and who will judge themselves not to take more than four dollars per day. 6th. Resolved, by the Meigs county members of this Council, that we recommend E. J. Whitner, as our choice for Representative of Meigs county.

7th. Resolved, That the Secretary furnish a copy of these resolutions to the Athens Republican for publication. (Signed) N. S. Pritch, Pres't. J. B. LOVE, Secretary pro tem.

On Tuesday morning a freight train on the East Tennessee and Georgia Road met with an obstruction near Ooltwah, by which several cars were thrown from the track and damaged.

All local notices of a business character are charged at the rate of 20 cents per line. Parties who went to Knoxville to the Odd Fellows' Celebration, report it to have been a very nice affair, and to have passed off to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Masonic Notice. Notice is hereby given to E. W. Brown to be and appear before Meigs County Court, No. 20, of Peace and Aged and Maimed, on Saturday evening, 7th of October, being the 1st day of May next, at their Lodge room in the town of Athens, Tennessee, then and there to answer charges preferred against him in said Lodge for gross unamiable conduct, for the same will be taken as confessed, and the cause heard ex parte. By order of the Lodge. JOHN F. SLOVER, Sec'y pro tem. April 19, 1890.

Obituary. Died in this county, February 27, JONATHAN PATTERSON, in the 71st year of his age. Brother Patterson was a worthy and consistent member of the M. E. Church, South, to which he was devotedly attached, though not sectarian, but liberal and christian in his views and feelings toward all other branches of the church. He suffered much in his latter part of his life, but amidst his afflictions he ever recognized the hand of a beneficent Providence, enduring all with christian fortitude and submission. It was his disease that he knew with the most solemnity, but he had no terror for him, but he looked to it with joyful anticipations, like Paul, as the hour of his "external gain," and often spoke of his willingness and even desire to depart and be with Christ. Though for hours before his death disease hushed his voice, yet his exemplary life leaves no one to doubt that he is at rest. To church and friends, his death is an irreparable loss to him on a spiritual gain—but he is gone, God-glorious and glorified, now beloved alike of earth and heaven. A. H. WILSON.
